YEAR 7 ENGLISH TERM THREE

- PROCEDURAL TEXTS -

WHAT IS A PROCEDURAL TEXT?

A procedural text involves a set of instructions or information on how to do something.

For example …

- How to cook pancakes

- How to build something

- How to put together a table and chairs

- How to create something

- How to draw something

TIME TO TRY FOLLOWING A PROCEDURAL TEXT!

1. Turn to a fresh new page in your English exercise book

2. Write the heading 'PROCEDURAL TEXT – DRAWING A CAT' at the top-centre of the page

3. Draw a cat in the middle of the page, using only: A large circle for the body
                                                                                            A smaller circle for the head

4. Draw two triangles on the top-sides of the smaller circle for ears

5. Place two tiny circles in the face for eyes and give the cat a smile

6. Put three whiskers on both sides of the cat's face

7. Give your cat a tail

DO WE ALL HAVE A CAT?

HOLD UP YOUR MASTERPIECE!

'DRAWING A CAT' DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What skills were required by the informer (the teacher/the instructor) to be successful in the listeners (the students/the drawers) to complete the task?

- What skills were required by the listeners to be successful in completing the task?

- Evaluate the language used in the instructions.

- What did you find easy about completing the task?

- What did you find difficult about completing the task?

- What could the informer (the teacher/the instructor) have done better?

- What could the listeners (the students/the drawers) have done better?

WRITE A ONE PARAGRAPH REFLECTION EXPLAINING WHAT YOU THOUGHT WORKED WELL AND WHAT DIDN'T IN THIS ACTIVITY, AND WHY.